

Our Charity of the Month is AMITICIA which is a non-profit organization founded in Palma in 1988 in order to try to meet the care needs of young people with disabilities and mixed abilities outside of school hours. AMITICIA currently consists of a large group of families and individuals trying to increase the quality of life of these young people. They do not receive any state funding and rely completely on donations. Retiring collection - please be generous!

Quiz Night: tomorrow Monday 2 July, 7.30pm

Many thanks to everyone for supporting our Wednesday Coffee Mornings, Quiz & Games Nights and a big thank you to all who have worked so hard to make them run smoothly. All are now closed for a well deserved summer break and we will re-start in September.

This Wednesday the Fellowship Group meets & and continues using a course based on Ephesians – called Transformed Life. It looks at answering three of life's key questions: Who am I? Where do I belong? & What am I Living for?

Guided by Rev'd Bill Boyce, everyone is welcome (visitors & regulars, alike!) as we all are each week.

Christian Stewardship:

Our Giving on Sundays is always about our response to God's love for us, not just about paying the bills - 'Count your blessings,' as they say! Last Sunday's collection was 447.29€ and 245.20€ from recent social/fund raising events. We also receive on average 809€ through monthly UK/Spanish standing order Offerings. It costs around 6,393€ each month to maintain our chaplaincy ministry (an increase of 1,092€ from 2017). Unlike other Diocese in the C/E, the Diocese of Europe does not provide Chaplaincies with any financial support for ministry.

Don't forget: Items for Caritas, please & also small change for Church Funds - we're still collecting! and we would also like books for the Wednesday Coffee Morning bookstall ~ thank you!

TRINITY 5

OPENING PRAYER Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people, that in their vocation and ministry they may serve you in holiness and truth to the glory of your name; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever Amen.

THE READING (2 Cor. 8: 7, 9, 13-15)
A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.

You always have the most of everything - of faith, of eloquence, of understanding, of keenness for any cause, and the biggest share of our affection - so we expect you to put the most into this work of mercy too. Remember how generous the Lord Jesus was: he was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty. This does not mean that to give relief to others you ought to make things difficult for yourselves: it is a question of balancing what happens to be your surplus now against their present need, and one day they may have something to spare that will supply your own need. That is how we strike a balance: as scripture says: The man who gathered much had none too much, the man who gathered little did not go short.

*This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia alleluia!

You words are spirit, Lord, and they are life:
you have the message of eternal life.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia alleluia!

GOSPEL (Mark 5: 21-24, 35-43)
A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark.
Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered round him and he stayed by the lakeside. Then one of the synagogue officials came up, Jairus by name, and seeing him, fell at his feet and pleaded with him earnestly, saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus went with him and a large crowd followed him; they were pressing all round him.

While he was still speaking some people arrived from the house of the synagogue official to say, 'Your daughter is dead: why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus had overheard this remark of theirs and he said to the official, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. So they came to the official's house and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly. He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they laughed at him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha, kum!' which means, 'Little girl, I tell you to get up.' The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At this they were overcome with astonishment, and he ordered them strictly not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.

*This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Friday (29th) was the Feast Day of Ss. Peter & Paul, Apostles and it's traditionally a time for Ordinations in the Church. Please remember in your prayers all those to be ordained Deacon or Priest in this Diocese and elsewhere, their families and the parishes where they will serve. Pray too, for those exploring their sense of Vocation for Ordination at the moment and all candidates to be licensed soon for Reader Ministry (including very our own Vicky Pacey!)

St Peter -

Impulsive master of misunderstanding
You comfort me with all your big mistakes;
Jumping the ship before you make the landing,
Placing the bet before you know the stakes.
I love the way you step out without knowing,
The way you sometimes speak before you think,
The way your broken faith is always growing,
The way he holds you even when you sink.
Born to a world that always tried to shame you,
Your shaky ego vulnerable to shame,
I love the way that Jesus chose to name you,
Before you knew how to deserve that name.
And in the end your Saviour let you prove
That each denial is undone by love. (Malcolm Guite)
