

Our Charity for October is the Charity A21 - which is working hard to abolish injustice in the 21st Century, especially human trafficking – which has been likened to modern-day slavery. Human trafficking fuels the growth of organized crime, undermining health, safety, security, and the basic needs of humanity. It is sadly the fastest growing crime in the world. A21 is a non-profit organization who believes that we can end human trafficking by working together. Visit www.A21.org for more info.

Christian Stewardship:

Our Giving on Sundays is always about our response to God's love for us, not just about paying the bills - 'Count your blessings,' as they say! Last Sunday's collection was 528.00€ with 165.70€ from recent social/fund-raising events. Thank you for your support. We also receive on average 776€ through monthly UK/Spanish standing order Offerings. It costs around 6,393€ each month to maintain our chaplaincy ministry (an increase of 1,092€ from 2017). Unlike other Diocese in the C/E, the Diocese of Europe does not provide Chaplaincies with any financial support for ministry.

TRINITY 21

OPENING PRAYER

Grant, we beseech you, merciful Lord, to your faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins and serve you with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ your Son, our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST READING (Hebrews 5: 1-10)

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins.

He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. And one does not presume to take this honour, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was. So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, "You are my Son, today I have begotten you"; as he says also in another place, "You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek." In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

THE SECOND READING (Mark 10: 35-45)

A reading from the Gospel according to Mark.

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." And he said to them, "What is it you want me to do for you?" And they said to him, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory." But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"

They replied, "We are able." Then Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared." When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, "You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK :

Earlier this month, (11th Oct.) the Church celebrated the feast of St Ethelburga. One of London's smallest churches is dedicated to this saint. Almost destroyed by a terrorist attack in 1993, it was later restored and now seeks to 'inspire and equip people from all backgrounds to become peace-builders in their own lives and communities'.

The church has published the following prayer for an end to violence:

God of life,
every act of violence in our world,
between myself and another,
destroys a part of your creation.
Stir in my heart a renewed sense of reverence for all life.
Give me the vision to recognise your spirit in every human being,
however they behave towards me.
Make possible the impossible by cultivating in me
the fertile seed of healing love.
May I play my part in breaking the cycle of violence by realising that peace begins with me. Amen.

Praying for one another during the week:

For the worship, work & witness of this Chaplaincy.
For those killed and all injured or made homeless in the recent flooding across Mallorca
For the work of the Charity A21 and the people they will help this week, especially those in danger of being trafficked across the world.
