Saying Farewell To Fr Nigel

Fr Nigel enjoying a nice lunch

It was with some sadness that we said goodbye to Fr Nigel last weekend with a rather nice lunch at Menistralia and then with Nigel's final service at St. Andrew's on Sunday, 17th March.

But of course all in the Chaplaincy for Mallorca wish Nigel well in his new post and I know that some will be present at Nigel's licensing on Monday, 8th April at 11am at the Anglican Church at Los Boliches which is also called St. Andrew's!

Joint Chaplaincy lunch participants - a full but happy bunch!

Palma Church Hosts Two Community Choirs

On Saturday, 23rd February, the Anglican Church in Palma hosted two Spanish choirs for a lovely concert of about an hour and a half.

One choir was from here in Mallorca while the other were guests from the Basque region of Spain.

Each choir performed a half hour set of their own local folk songs both secular and religious. Then they combined (see the photo above) and we had eighty plus singers crammed into the sanctuary at the church singing their hearts out! It was brilliant.

The concert was held through the good offices of the 'Chorus Project' of which we are a member. It links venues with choirs and promotes singing for charitable activities. This concert raised money for the Vincent Ferrer Foundation which works with the poor throughout the world.

Curry and Quiz Night

This will take place at the Palma Anglican Church - Calle Nunez de Balboa 6, Palma - on Saturday, 13th April beginning at 8pm.

You may wish to bring something to drink with the delicious curry on offer. We will be doing one as a vegetarian and one for omnivores!

Teams of four per table. General knowledge, pictures, music - come along and test your skills. Tickets €10 available from the Church office or to reserve (971 737 279 / 600 400 600 / chaplain@anglican-mallorca.org).

Chaplaincy Annual General Meetings

Parishioners attending the Annual General Meeting last year maybe!

OK a little bit of artistic license with the photo above but these important meetings are all about local democracy as at them those on the electoral role are able to elect their church councils for the forthcoming year.

Palma - Sunday, 7th April from 12.30pm

Puerto Pollensa - Thursday - 11th April from 1pm (following the Thursday eucharist at 12.30pm)

Then our APCM (Annual Parochial Church Meeting) which is for the whole Chaplaincy together, will take place after the Puerto Pollenca AGM mentioned above, starting at 2pm on Thursday 11th at St. Andrew's.

In order to vote you must be on the Electoral Roll so make sure you fill in a form in your church. If you wish to stand for election there will be sign up sheets and forms also available.
