OPENING PRAYER

Holy God, faithful and unchanging: enlarge our minds with the knowledge of your truth, and draw us more deeply into the mystery of your love, that we may truly worship you, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First reading is taken from the book of Proverbs (8:1-4, 22-31)

Does not wisdom call out?
Does not understanding raise her voice?
²At the highest point along the way,
where the paths meet, she takes her stand;
³beside the gate leading into the city,
at the entrance, she cries aloud:
⁴"To you, O people, I call out;
I raise my voice to all mankind..
²²"The LORD brought me forth as the first of his works,
before his deeds of old;
²³I was formed long ages ago,
at the very beginning, when the world came to be.
²⁴When there were no watery depths, I was given birth,
when there were no springs overflowing with water;
²⁵before the mountains were settled in place,
before the hills, I was given birth, ²⁶before he made the world or its fields
or any of the dust of the earth.
²⁷I was there when he set the heavens in place,
when he marked out the horizon on the face of the deep, ²⁸when he established the clouds above
and fixed securely the fountains of the deep, ²⁹when he gave the sea its boundary
so the waters would not overstep his command, and when he marked out the foundations of the earth.
³⁰ Then I was constantly^[c] at his side.
I was filled with delight day after day,
rejoicing always in his presence, ³¹rejoicing in his whole world
and delighting in mankind.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, the God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

The Gospel Reading John 16:12-15

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John

Glory to you, O Lord

Jesus said to his disciples:

"I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK – Through Christ we have access in one Spirit to the Father. (Ephesians 2:18)
