Good morning everyone

Let us pause for a few moments to still our bodies and minds before we begin our worship.....

Day 4 of Our Kingdom Come

Father Simon's Prayer for us at St.Andrew's

Almighty God Heavenly Father, we praise your Holy Name and thank you for all the blessings of this life. We ask for your forgiveness of all our failings and weaknesses ; and the assurance of sins forgiven.

As we gather here in St Andrews Pollenca, following the example of your First Disciples , may we pray for the Gifts of your. Holy Spirit. That transformed by your love, we may witness to your saving grace amongst all those who live, work and visit in this community. May they see you in us, that together, we may extend your Kingdom in Pollenca. We ask this for the sake of your dear Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen

Reading:

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us. Romans 5.6-8

Reflection:

What's beautiful about the Christian story is that God loved us before we came to the realisation that we're not perfect or righteous in our own strength, and before we turned to accept His love. The love of God we see shown in countless Bible stories comes from a broken heart. It is a love for someone which feels like an ache in the pit of the stomach. The kind of love which would do anything, however irrational it may seem to others, to find what is lost. As we shall read in tomorrow's reflection, it is the love which risks everything for the sake of one who is lost.

Prayer:

Loving God, I am sorry for the times when I have not loved others as You love. Thank You that, before I thought of confessing, You had forgiven me. I confess all that is not right in my life today and ask for the forgiveness You so lovingly give. May this love transform my friends' lives also.

Action:

During this week, how can I lay aside something important to me, so as to better serve one of my five?

The Global Thy Kingdom Come Prayer:

Almighty God, your ascended Son has sent us into the world to preach the good news of your kingdom: inspire us with your Spirit and fill our hearts with the fire of your love, that all who hear your Word may be drawn to you, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

If you plan to go into church today I suggest that you have this handy to meditate on and pray over. Don't forget to cover your five people in prayer and ask God to send His Holy Spirit to guide you in your thoughts and prayers throughout these days of 'Our Kingdome Come' AMEN

Don't forget to pray for you five people.....
