Good morning

What a wonderful Wednesday morning.....
Let's take a few moments to relax and silence ourselves before we begin.....

Lord God, you made us out of your love and you want us to love you.
We give our love to you this day.
Help us to show your love to others
by the way we deal with each of them.
In Jesus name we pray. AMEN

This is not the reading for today but is one which was used by Father Bill Boyce, (one of our regular visitors at Puerto Pollensa) last Sunday. The link to the sermon follows the reading.

1 Corinthians 13:

The Gift of Love

If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end. For we know only in part, and we prophesy only in part; but when the complete comes, the partial will come to an end. When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became an adult, I put an end to childish ways. For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known. And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen

May the love of the Father enfold us.
May the love of the Saviour uphold us.
May the love of the Spirit surround us.
In Jesus name. AMEN

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord
In the name of Christ
AMEN

Wishing you every blessing
