Good morning all

Blessings and peace to us all.....

Lord we thank you for your love,
we thank you for your care,
and we thank you that you are always with us in all that we do.
In Jesus name we pray. AMEN

Psalm 84

The Joy of Worship in the Temple

To the leader: according to The Gittith. Of the Korahites. A Psalm.
How lovely is your dwelling place,
O LORD of hosts!
My soul longs, indeed it faints
for the courts of the LORD;
my heart and my flesh sing for joy
to the living God.

Even the sparrow finds a home,
and the swallow a nest for herself,
where she may lay her young,
at your altars, O LORD of hosts,
my King and my God.
Happy are those who live in your house,
ever singing your praise.

Happy are those whose strength is in you,
in whose heart are the highways to Zion.
As they go through the valley of Baca
they make it a place of springs;
the early rain also covers it with pools.

Luke 21: 29- 33

The Lesson of the Fig Tree

Then he told them a parable: 'Look at the fig tree and all the trees; as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

Reflection

Jesus tells his disciples that all created things will pass away. However, his words will never pass away. As we know from our own experience, life can change quickly. The change may be a positive one. However, change also can be difficult and painful. However, Jesus reassures us that there is one real thing which we may always rely on:

"Heaven and earth may not pass away, but my words (and my love) will never pass away!"

When life is difficult, painful or confusing, Jesus is with us. He pours out his love, grace and strength upon us. Jesus will not leave us! Let's remember his words when we are struggling or afraid or feeling alone. Jesus is with us always.....AMEN

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory for ever and ever. AMEN

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all evermore. AMEN

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord
In the name of Christ. AMEN

Blessings and love
